For whom

Who are the public cultural facilities for?

Probably all operators have the same answer. I think we have the purpose of providing cultural inhabitant service. I think we have the responsibility to support local cultural activities.

I think this part is very important and should be a factor of all judgment. Of course, don't break the various rules that are set, so it is within the rules.

We believe that the only way to maintain the hall is to provide the needs of human services.

We may have to think more to continue to be necessary for our users.
