The public hall after the coronavirus ②

The business of our industry is one of the industries that have been hit hard by the coronavirus. And even now, the difficult situation continues.

Many conditions are necessary to recover from the current situation, One of the biggest conditions is the admission limit for customers. This is one of the measures to prevent infection. However, it will be fatal for events that consist of ticket income, so most organizers have to give up their events.

Second, if the event causes an outbreak, the mass media will criticize the event organizer. This is very risky as it can reduce the trust of the company.

However, we cannot continue this situation, because most companies run out of money. Many companies will be looking for ways to survive this situation.
